Overview

Loren's practice focuses on providing comprehensive, personalized estate planning counseling to individuals, families, and small business owners, as well as probate and trust administration. Loren is committed to helping his clients understand that the foundation of estate planning is appreciating the value of protecting themselves and their loved ones. Loren received a B.A. from University of California Los Angeles in 1985. In 1991, Loren received a J.D. degree from the Western State University College of Law. Loren began his legal career in Mergers & Acquisitions with the Office of General Counsel at Bank of America in San Francisco. Prior to starting his private estate planning practice, Loren was the general counsel for Justsystem Ventures, a venture capital firm located in Menlo Park, California and then established and managed Aspect Ventures, a corporate development fund for Aspect Communications in San Jose. Loren lives with his wife and three children in San Francisco.
